

Educational institutions are less likely to graduate systems-impacted students in the South Bay than any other region

Indicator: Graduation rates among systems-impacted youth are defined as the percentage of foster youth and youth enrolled in Dashboard Alternative School Status (DASS) schools who graduate high school within four-years. Data Source: Catalyst California's calculations of California Department of Education (CDE) Four-year Cohort Graduation rate data, 2021-2022.